EVICITION COURT PROCEDURAL PATHS

For every eviction complaint filed in Oregon, a first appearance will be scheduled and a final judgment will be issued. The case begins at the First Appearance hearing and is disposed of at that hearing, through an agreement, or at trial.

1. Concluded at First Appearance

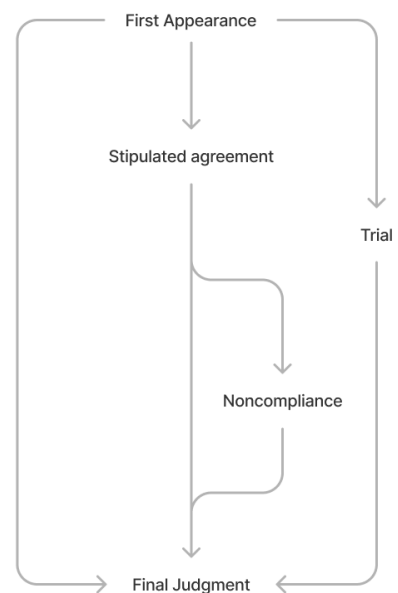

A judge issues a final judgment at the first appearance hearing. Includes default judgments of eviction (when a tenant misses a court appearance) and dismissals requested by the plaintiff.

2. Stipulated Agreement is Reached

A stipulated agreement is a court-enforced agreement between the tenant and the landlord. Common terms include a payment plan, a move-out date, and/or changes in behavior. The case may remain open until a final judgment of dismissal or eviction is issued.

3. Goes to trial

Trials are where a judge hears and considers evidence and testimony regarding the complaint and defenses from the tenant. At the conclusion of the trial, a final judgment—either a dismissal or a judgment of eviction—is issued.
